Dear Kevin:

"It's not what's promised in the boardroom, but rather what's demonstrated in the datacenter that counts. We recently had an opportunity to work with Sigma on a complex NetApp initiative. As is often the case in complex environments, what should have been a complicated, but routine deployment, was not. Fortunately, Sigma's organizational commitment, local resources, and technical skills proved to be a winning formula. We are pleased to say that we view Sigma as a trusted advisor and valued partner."

Sincerely,
